FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

November 23rd, 2020

Several Shelby County government departments will revert to serving the public via phone, email and appointment only beginning on Tuesday, November 24th, 2020 and lasting through January 15th, 2021. (tentative)

Our goal is to continue delivering county services while protecting the public health and the health and wellbeing of county employees during this pandemic.

Effective Tuesday, November 24th, 2020 please contact the office/department you wish to visit by phone or email, and they will assist you with additional information.

Anyone may call into a county meeting by dialing: 720-712-7964

There is a drop-box located on the South side of the Annex. Please leave any packets/payments inside. This will be checked daily by staff.

Business transactions will continue, and all departments are open. However, you must call-ahead for entry into the Annex Building. This situation is fluid and may be updated or changed at any time.

Please see the list below for all county offices and/or visit our website at
